

Our Policies...

NO Smoking allowed in the house, on porch, deck or balcony. Candles are to be burned only in provided, fire-resistant containers away from all flammable materials and only with guest present in the room. Be certain that all candles and fireplaces are out when you leave the room. Fire extinguishers are provided in each room and all hallways. We value the health and safety of our guests!

Older children (above toddlers) are welcome with parental supervision.

We permit small, well-behaved pets if pre-arranged by the owner. Barclay, our resident Sheltie, Rusty and Rowdy, our resident Dachshunds, live on site. We will be happy to help make arrangements to board your pet in town, upon request. Service animals are always welcome.

Breakfast will be served between 7:00-8:30am. If this time is not convenient, please make alternate arrangements with the Innkeeper before retiring. Complimentary soft drinks and snacks are provided each evening. Feel free to serve yourself from the mini-fridge and use the microwave provided in the front upstairs hallway.

Keys are provided at check-in, one of which fits the both the front and back doors of the Inn. The third, unusually-shaped key fits the small security safe in the armoire of each room. Please lock the deadbolt lock on your room door each time you leave the Inn. Please lock the entrance doors upon leaving, especially if the Innkeeper is away from the house. Keys must be returned upon check-out- an additional charge will be made for any keys not returned! If checking out while the Innkeeper is away, keys may be left in your room and the rear door lower lock should be locked prior to closing the door behind you. Thanks.
